POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR TRAVELING EXHIBITS

- ♦ Traveling exhibits may be lent to any bona fide cultural or civic organization. No loans shall be made to individuals. No commercial use may be made of traveling exhibits, and access to the exhibit must be available to all.
- ♦ Traveling exhibit requests shall be approved by the Arizona Capitol Museum Director. Approval is subject to exhibit availability, policies regarding traveling exhibits and satisfactory completion of the "Application for Traveling Exhibit" form.
- ♦ Traveling exhibit bookings ordinarily shall be for a two month period, with an additional week allowed for repacking and shipment back to the Arizona Capitol Museum.
- ♦ The borrower shall pay all relative costs regarding shipping, including at least $1,250 shipping insurance.
- ♦ The borrower must provide staff to unpack, set-up and repack the exhibit. Damage to the exhibit must be reported immediately to the Arizona Capitol Museum.
- ♦ Exhibit must be returned in the original shipping box. Secure, clean, dry-on site storage must be provided for materials, including banner carrying cases and shipping box.
- ♦ Exhibit security measures shall be required of borrowers. The exhibit must be monitored. It must be sufficiently secured by locked doors during closed hours. No exhibit shall be left unsupervised while open to the public.
- ♦ Exhibits shall not be mounted in an area that might encourage damage; exhibit should be located in an area with moderate lighting and should not be subjected to extremes of temperatures, light, humidity, air pollution, etc. Exhibit shall not be displayed outdoors or in a temporary building or structure.
- ♦ No portion of the exhibit may be altered in any way.
- ♦ No special admission fee shall be charged to the exhibition, and no fundraising event can be held in conjunction with the exhibit.
- ♦ Exhibit space must be equal to or greater than the space requirement for the exhibition.
- ♦ The borrower shall be responsible for all risk of loss to the personal property loaned under this agreement. The borrower may provide a Certificate of Insurance naming the State of Arizona and the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records as Loss Payee.
